Lewis On History

Restless Hearts “Human history is the long terrible story of man trying to find something other than God which will make him happy.”

Blind Eyes “We may be sure that the characteristic blindness of the twentieth century - the blindness about which posterity will ask, "But how could they have thought that?" - lies where we have never suspected it... None of us can fully escape this blindness, but we shall certainly increase it, and weaken our guard against it, if we read only modern books... The only palliative is to keep the clean sea breeze of the centuries blowing through our minds, and this can be done only by reading old books.”

Busy Hands “If you read history you will find that the Christians who did most for the present world were precisely those who thought most of the next. It is since Christians have largely ceased to think of the other world that they have become so ineffective in this.

Escaping the Blindness in Education

Post Tenebras Lux-- After Darkness... Light

“I am very much afraid that schools will prove to be the great gates of hell unless they diligently labor in explaining the Holy Scriptures, engraving them in the hearts of youth. I advise no one to place his child where the Scriptures do not reign paramount.” -Martin Luther

To conceal or to reveal?

We will not hide them from their descendants;
we will tell the next generation
the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord,
his power, and the wonders he has done.

-Psalm 78:4

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

-Matthew 19:14

Where do we want to be and how do we plan to get there?

What is Classical Christian education?

The cultivation of wisdom and virtue

by nourishing the soul on truth, goodness and beauty

by studying the seven liberal arts

so that students may enjoy God and make Him known.
